

word	definition
FIRE	Fires need oxygen and heat to burn.
BAKERY	A place where bread, cakes and pastries are made.
PUDDING LANE	A narrow street in London with wooden houses crowded together.
LONDON	Capital city of the United Kingdom.
FIRE HOOK	An iron rod, usually curved with a hook at the top.

I need to use...

I need to recognise:

I need to remember:

- 🔑 The Great Fire of London began on the 6th September 1666.
- 🔑 It began on Pudding Lane inside a bakery owned by Thomas Farriner.
- 🔑 Samuel Pepys kept a diary about the great fire.

Great Fire of London

The Great Fire of London began in 1666.

The fire destroyed St Pauls Cathedral.

Houses were made from wood and straw.

When houses were rebuilt, a lot of them were remade with bricks.

Great Fire of London
1666

Rainhill Trials
1829

Florence Nightingale
1820-1910